FAIRNESS OPINIONS

File Documentation Standards and Recommendations

1. A Fairness Opinion is defined as “any written communication containing a conclusion as to the fairness of a proposed transaction to security holders (or a group of security holders), from a financial point of view.” A Fairness Opinion does not include work product that is in the process of being completed that is provided to a client or knowledgeable third party in circumstances where each of the following conditions are met: (i) the work product is clearly marked as being in draft form and subject to change; (ii) the work product is issued for the purpose of obtaining comment, instruction, confirmation or other information required to complete the Fairness Opinion; and (iii) the Fairness Opinion issuer knows, or reasonably ought to know, that the intended reader(s) does not intend to rely on the work product or distribute the work product to a third party who may in turn rely on such work product.
2. At a minimum, file documentation for a Fairness Opinion shall consist of the following items set out in bold characters. “Recommendations” are not mandatory, but encouraged. “Explanatory comments” provide additional guidance in applying the specific provisions of the Standard.
3. General Standards
