MARY JANE ANDREWS BECOMES FCBV HONOURARY FELLOW
-CBV Leader Receives Highest Business Valuation Honour in Canada-

(TORONTO – June 23, 2010) – The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators (CICBV) announced today that Mary Jane Andrews, KPMG LLP, Halifax, NS, is the recipient of a 2010 FCBV honorary fellow. The FCBV honorary fellow designation is granted to Members who have brought distinction to the business valuation profession and have achieved recognition in their professional lives and in their communities.

Mary Jane's distinctions as a Chartered Business Valuator (CBV) span over twenty years. Since 1988, she has fulfilled numerous executive roles on the board of the CICBV, and led initiatives that have increased the scope and depth of the CBV Programme of Studies. Instrumental in establishing the CBV credentials in Atlantic Canada, her related activities including giving presentations to the business and accounting communities and promoting the designation to university students were foundational in establishing the designation in her region.

In addition to rising to the top of her field in the tax department of KPMG LLP, Mary Jane also found time to mentor younger CBVs entering the profession. As a mentor, Mary Jane is respected for her professionalism and enthusiasm, and is a vibrant example of a CBV at the height of her career.

"Mary Jane's accomplishments within the Institute and in the profession are praiseworthy," said Jeannine Brooks, President and CEO of The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators (CICBV). "Her contributions to this field have been undeniably momentous and for this reason she has been awarded with the designation of Fellow Chartered Business Valuator (FCBV)."

Mary Jane will be recognized for her contributions to the business valuation profession at The Recognition dinner at the CICBV National Conference in Miami on October 6, 2010

The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators (CICBV) is the largest professional valuation organization in Canada, with over 2,400 Members and Students around the world, and is the sole administrator of the Chartered Business Valuator (CBV) designation training program and accreditation testing. To obtain the CBV designation, individuals must complete a rigorous program of courses and exams and meet lengthy professional experience requirements.
