

Media release
For immediate delivery

ANISH CHOPRA RECEIVES TOP CBV UNDER 40 AWARD

- Younger CBV Shows Distinction in Business Valuations -

(TORONTO – June 23, 2010) – The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators (CICBV) announced today that Anish Chopra, CBV, of TD Asset Management, Toronto, ON, will receive the 2010 CICBV Top CBV Under 40 Award. Presented by Deloitte and Touche, LLP in memory of David Cornfield CA-CBV, the award recognizes younger CBVs who have demonstrated success in a broad diversity of interests, brought distinction to the profession, and given outstanding service.

Anish Chopra's many accomplishments as a Chartered Business Valuator (CBV) span twelve years and include distinction in academics, service, and communications. In 1998, he placed first in Canada on the Membership Entrance Examination (MEE). In the same year, he began his career at TD Asset Management, where he continues to lead with his business valuations expertise. In education, he has led and contributed to the development and writing of numerous CICBV courses, including the first on-line course. As a communicator, his frequent and well-regarded speaking engagements across Canada have effectively promoted the profession to the business and finance communities and to university students.

As well as being a leader in his field, Chopra has demonstrated commitment to the local community. From 1997-2004 he served as the Canadian Cancer Society's Central Toronto Unit Vice President and Treasurer, where he received the Toronto Regional Fundraising Award.

"The Institute congratulates Anish Chopra for his achievement in the field of business valuations," said Jeannine Brooks, President and CEO of The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators. "Over the last twelve years, Anish has worked diligently and passionately to give outstanding service, promote business valuation, and maintain the high level of professionalism associated with the CBV designation. We believe he sets the standard for the inaugural Top CBV Under 40 Award presented by Deloitte and Touche, LLP in memory of David Cornfield CA-CBV."

The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators (CICBV) is the largest professional valuation organization in Canada, with over 2,400 members and students around the world, and is the sole administrator of the Chartered Business Valuator (CBV) designation training program and accreditation testing. To obtain the CBV designation, individuals must complete a rigorous program of courses and exams and meet lengthy professional experience requirements. For more information about the Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators, please visit our website at www.cicbv.ca.

– 30 –

For more information contact:
Lauren Kirshner, External Relations Coordinator
416-977-1117 x 228 - kirshnerl@cicbv.ca