

THE CANADIAN INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED BUSINESS VALUATORS

Presents:

Webinar (Live)

"Current Issues in Assessing Damages in Class Action Proceedings"

Presented By: Errol Soriano, CA, CBV, CFE
Managing Director, Campbell Valuation Partners Limited

Wednesday, September 9th, 2009
2:00pm-3:00pm, Eastern Time

About the Presentation

For those of you who missed the original presentation at the Eastern Regional Conference, this will provide an overview of aspects of the Class Proceedings Act (Ontario) that are of particular interest to CBV's. The presentation will also address recent developments in case law that pertain to the quantification of economic loss in these cases.

About the Presenter

Errol Soriano graduated from the University of Western Ontario's School of Business Administration in 1987. He obtained his CA in 1989 and his CBV in 1993. Since 1991, Errol's practice has been dedicated exclusively to the areas of business valuation and damages quantification. Errol has been qualified as an expert in business valuation and damages quantification in various Canadian Courts and in international arbitration proceedings in the United States. Errol has also been appointed Inspector pursuant to the Ontario Business Corporation Act to review accounting and business records in a shareholder dispute.

Errol's work specialties include domestic matters as well as international trade and investment disputes involving trade agreements, bilateral investment treaties and/or the North American Free Trade Agreement. Errol has provided services to clients in Canada, the United States, Europe, South America and the Middle East.

In addition to his broad, practical experience, Errol is the author of an authoritative text on the quantification of economic damages (and co-author of a second text), and has lectured extensively to professional interest groups in Canada and the United States.
