

The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators Regional Directors Election Results

Toronto (April 12, 2016) – The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators (CICBV) is pleased to announce the results of the recent elections for regional representatives on the Board of Directors. The newly elected Regional Directors noted below will join the CICBV Board of Directors in the Governance of the Chartered Business Valuator (CBV) profession for a three-year term commencing on June 15, 2016.

Province of Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan: The Institute congratulates Scott Lawritsen, CBV (of Hemens Lawritsen Valuation Group Ltd., Calgary, AB) on his re-election. The Board wishes to express its appreciation to Michael Devonshire, CBV, Jason Maltais, CBV and J. Max Wiebe, CBV for their candidacies in this election and their interest in serving the CBV profession.

City of Toronto and the Regional Municipality of Peel: Alexander Lourie, CBV (of Deloitte) was acclaimed in an uncontested election.

Atlantic Region: Charlene Rodenhiser, CBV (of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP) was acclaimed in an uncontested election.

Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators

The CBV designation is Canada's premier credential for professional business valuation and litigation support advisors. CBVs quantify economic losses and the value of businesses, business interests and intangible assets, such as trademarks and intellectual property for a variety of purposes including deal advisory, dispute resolution, statutory requirements and financial reporting.

The CICBV is a professional body that provides the education and accreditation program that leads to the CBV designation, and establishes and enforces practice standards and its code of ethical conduct.

###

For more information please contact:

Megan Rousseau
Communications Manager
The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators
Tel.: 416-977-1117 ext. 228
E-mail: megan.rousseau@cicbv.ca