International Valuation Standards Council (IVSC) Boards to meet in Vancouver 1st & 2nd August 2018

The IVSC is the international body responsible for developing and setting the International Valuation Standards (IVS). On Wednesday August 1st and Thursday the 2nd, the IVSC boards responsible for drafting and approving IVS will meet in Vancouver to discuss future updates to the standards and to consider market trends which are influencing the valuation standards agenda.

CICBV members are invited to attend the meetings as observers, giving you the opportunity to gain a first-hand insight into the IVS standard-setting process.

Places are limited and offered on a first-come, first-served basis. However, you can also register to join the meetings remotely if you are not able to attend in person.

Observers are invited to join:

► Wednesday August 1st

Time: 9:00 – 12:00 (Vancouver, British Columbia PDT)

Details: The IVSC's Tangible Assets Board (TAB) and Business Valuation Board (BVB) will hold a joint meeting to review these elements of the IVS and to put forward recommendations for future standards. Among other things they will discuss future exposure drafts looking at the valuation of non-financial liabilities, and issues such as the valuation of extractive industries, AVMS, and biological assets.

► Thursday August 2nd

Time: 14:00 – 17:00 (Vancouver, British Columbia PDT)

Details: The IVSC Standards Review Board (SRB) will consider the amendments and proposals put forward by the TAB and BVB and take decisions on future updates to the IVS.

As a global standard-setter the IVSC boards regularly meet to discuss standards updates in different locations around the world. This is a great opportunity to engage in the standards-setting process and to meet members of the boards.

To register your attendance as an observer, either in person or virtually, visit the IVSC website: <https://www.ivsc.org/get-involved/IVSC-Board-Meetings>
