VALUATION OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS CONSULTATION OPEN

The recently created IVSC Financial Instruments Standards Board (FI Board) has published an Agenda Consultation seeking feedback regarding the approach the Board should take and the prioritisation of their work. The FI Board brings together international leaders from across the world of finance to lead the development of standards for financial instruments. CBV Thomas Lee (KPMG) is Vice-Chair of the FI Board.

The consultation process for this IVS Financial Instruments Agenda consultation is now open. The FI Board encourages participation within the 60-day consultation period ending 19 September 2019 from all individuals and organisations.

You can find the IVSC agenda consultation located here.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS IN VALUATION HOSTS NETWORKING EVENT IN VANCOUVER

Last week, the Young Professionals in Valuation Organizing Committee held a successful networking event at Rogue Kitchen & Wetbar. Many people turned out to meet their professional peers and chat over food and drinks. Thank you to those who attended and stay tuned for more events in the near future!

SUMMER TERM STUDENTS LATE MQE 2019 REGISTRATION

Students who are waiting for their last course(s) marks and waiting for results of the Level III CFA exam will be given the opportunity to register at a designated time. This late registration is available only for students waiting for these exam marks.

After all course exam marks are uploaded, students will receive an email to your preferred email with instructions on when and how to register for the MQE. You must register within the timeline specified in the email (48 hours) as MQE registration will be closed until the 2020.

Students who are waiting for their Level III CFA exam mark, and who wish to write the 2019 MQE, please contact Isabel Natale as soon as you receive your Level III results.
